

COLORADO SPRINGS CONVENTION AND VISITORS BUREAU

515 South Cascade, Colorado Springs, Colorado 80903 Voice (719) 635-7506 Toll-free 1-877-745-3773 Fax (719) 635-4968
E-mail cscvb@coloradosprings-travel.com Web site www.coloradosprings-travel.com

CONVENTION &
VISITORS BUREAU

August 15, 2002

Dear High School Music Director:

I would like to invite you to bring your students to one of the premier musical competitions in the U.S., the 21st Annual Cavalcade of Music. This competition attracts accomplished high school musicians from throughout the country, whose talent will be adjudicated by music educators from the western states. Instrumental performances will be staged in the Pikes Peak Center, an internationally acclaimed performing arts hall. Choral groups will be performing in Centennial Hall, a performing amphitheater.

In order to assist you with your travel plans and itinerary development, we have initiated a Cavalcade of Music web link accessed through www.coloradosprings-travel.com. This web link includes:

- an online entry form
- profiles of adjudicators
- a link to the Pikes Peak Center's website
- information on accommodations, attractions, retail, and restaurants
- sample itineraries
- a list of sponsors
- the performance schedule
- a list of award winners

Colorado Springs is a dynamic community noted for its scenic beauty, diverse attractions, cultural sophistication, and outdoor recreation. Not only will your students enjoy a challenging competition, but they will also have fun exploring the Pikes Peak region. Please reserve May 7 through 10, 2003, and register your school now.

Sincerely and best regards,

Terry Sullivan
President and C.E.O.